AgriCharts Provides Solution for Brock Associates Mobile Platform

CHICAGO, IL and MILWAUKEE, WI – April 2, 2009 – AgriCharts, a division of Barchart.com, Inc., which provides real-time data, website and mobile services to the agricultural industry, today announced an initiative with Brock Associates, an agricultural commodity advisory firm for farmers, farm owners and agribusinesses for over 25 years, to provide a market focused mobile platform to the agricultural industry and Brock Associates' clients. The mobile platform, available to the public from any mobile-browser at www.mobileagsolutions.com provides market quotes, news, weather and Brock Associates' leading market commentary. Subscribers to Brock Associates' Daily Market Commentaries can access complete market commentaries via the mobile platform in real-time.

"The need for timely and accurate market information is more critical now than ever before. Brock Associates sees mobileagsolutions.com as a way to put this needed information at the fingertips of farmers and other business people, using technology most already own," said Richard Brock, President of Brock Associates. "We are pleased to add mobileagsolutions.com to the menu of helpful services provided by Brock Associates."

"Brock Associates provides highly regarded and widely followed agricultural market commentary and analysis throughout the United States, so when choosing AgriCharts for their mobile solution, we were proud to work with them," said Eero Pikat, President of Barchart. "Clients of Brock Associates will certainly benefit from their mobile platform as they can now access Brock's market commentary wherever they are, as well as our real-time market data," added Pikat.

The Brock Associates mobile platform can be accessed at www.mobileagsolutions.com.
